together since 1998, perform a playful mix of New Orleans swamp rock, classic boogie-woogie, folk, Memphis rock & roll, and combine everything from calypso to country in the band’s blue stew. Steve has been called a musical storyteller, a blues man, a noted guitar stylist and a musical pilgrim. People listen, people dance.

The Music Series is generously funded by the Friends of the Northborough Library and the Northborough Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Mass. Cultural Council.

Spring Music Series

March 19 @ 2 PM
Dublin born folklorist, folksinger and instrumentalist Tom O’Carroll brings a wealth of stories, humor, wit and history to his performances. He has played at concerts, festivals, colleges, libraries and pubs all over the U.S. and Canada, as well as his native Ireland. Whether playing a plaintive air on the tin whistle or singing and playing rousing traditional songs to the accompaniment of the guitar or the bodhrán (Irish drum), Tom captivates all with his lively program of Irish culture. More about Tom is available at www.tomocarroll.com. Come and help us celebrate St. Patrick’s Day in style!

2nd Annual Edible Book Festival

Monday April 4th from 6:00—7:00 p.m.
Please join us for the most delicious event of the year! The Edible Book Festival is an international event that takes place on or around April 1st in libraries and art institutions around the world. The festival honors French gastronome Jean-Anthelme Brillat-Savarin (1755-1826) who was famous for his witty meditations on food.

We’ll be hosting our 2nd Annual Edible Book Festival here on Monday, April 4th and we invite you to take part! It is a fun event for all ages that celebrates books by inviting participants to make an edible food creation inspired by a book. Edible books will then be viewed by the public, documented and judged. Ribbons will be awarded and food will be shared and enjoyed by all. Check out our Pinterest page for more information and for pictures from last year’s event: https://www.pinterest.com/nbororead/edible-book-festival.

If you need some ideas and or inspiration, try an image search for "edible books." There are many great images that will hopefully spark your creativity.

Please register for this event. Register online by visiting our website at www.northboroughlibrary.org and clicking on our calendar of events. For more information or for assistance registering email us at reference@northboroughlibrary.org or call us at 508-393-5025 ext. 5.

SAVE THE DATE! April 20 from 6:30—8:30 p.m.
